A Full Line Of Everything the Farmer Needs!

A repository filled with first-class Vehicles of every description. More than 300 set up. An assortment not found in any city this side of New York, Cincinnati not excepted, and at 20% less than so-called "Direct-from-Factory Prices."

Our Harness Department is complete. We are justly proud of its reputation. If your Harness were gotten from the Square Deal Man it is all right.
Horsemen will find in one Horse Boot Department just the kind of boot he wants, as we carry a full and complete line ALWAYS.

When we tell you we are agents for the "Old Hickory" Farm Wagon, the most perfectly constructed and lightest draft farm wagon on the market, we have said enough.

"Royal" Fence is rightly named. Its merit puts it at the head of its class—that of square mesh, continuous stay wire fence. It is made of heavy, hard, mill steel wire, and it is not an experiment, but a thoroughly tested article.

Hardware for farm and kitchen.
Roofing, all kinds.
Poultry Fence, all sizes. In fact, most everything the farmer needs.

FREE! FREE! GIVEN AWAY

We have determined that 1909 MUST be the biggest year we have ever had. We are going to do our part toward making it so, and, in order to give an added impetus to our CASH SALES, are going to begin Monday, March 22d, and with each CASH purchase amounting to $1 a ticket entitling the holder to a chance on the following:

A $100 FULL LEATHER TOP BUGGY.
A $50 RUNABOUT.
A $25 SET OF BUGGY HARNESS.
AN $18 SADDLE.
A $10 ROBE.
A $5 STORM FRONT.

All to be given away Friday, January 1st, 1910. Full value for your money when you buy and a chance to get something for nothing.

There has been hung in the Louisville Free Public Library the portrait in oil of Mr. Virgil McKnight, the gift of Mr. Logan C. Murray, President of the American National Bank, and a great admirer of Mr. McKnight. Mr. Murray secured the portrait in Mason county. Mr.
McKnight was one of the most successful Bankers of Kentucky. This was the grandfather of the late Virgil McKnight of this county.
Just why this historical portrait could not remain in Mason county is a sad reminder that we have many hundred such relics that should enrich a local gallery of history. It is a shame that Maysville cannot have a Library or Courthouse where the portraits of her notable sons and daughters might hang to grace and interest this and succeeding generations.

THE "REGAL" SHOES

For Men Make Their Debut in Maysville.

FOR FIVE YEARS we have waited patiently to secure the agency of the Regal Shoe, for we knew it had no equal, but the Regal factory was so busy making shoes for their hundreds exclusive "Regal" stores in every large city that they could not take any more agencies on their list. Having enlarged their immense factory, they saw themselves clear to take a few agencies additional, and we were one of the fortunate ones. While there are other good makes of men's shoes, we do not know a single one that has made a name like the "Regal." "Regal" on a SHOE IS LIKE STERLING ON SILVER. It's the shoe that proves. The new spring styles have arrived.

WEDDING BELLS RING OUT

Announcing Happy Consummation of Beautiful Nuptial Event

Amid Bowers of Beauty and a Brilliant Throng Miss Lillie L. Waller Becomes Bride of Mr. Shelby M. Blatterman

"Happy the bride the sun shines on." With the brilliant radiance of the March sun shedding its dazzling effulgence from an almost cloudless sky—a perfect day for a nuptial event—and the beautiful and stately old First Presbyterian Church in Third street thronged with relatives and friends of the happy couple and embowered amid a wilderness of semi-tropical vines, verdures, roses and a superb array of floral decorations, at "high noon" Miss Lillie Langhorne Waller became the wife of Mr. Shelby Mitchell Blatterman.

The day was in every way propitious for the joining of two hearts, the scions of two of the oldest and most distinguished of our Mason county families, and the happy occasion was made a notable one by the assembled hundreds gathered in the beautiful old edifice to witness the solemn and religiously impressive nuptial scene. The decorations were superbly beautiful in their profusion, and yet the foliage arrangement was simplicity itself, draping the walls and organ rails and surrounding with rural verdure the holy sanctum of God's Temple, which, transformed into a marriage altar, the vows were spoken that vouchsafed the happiest of unions. The main auditorium of the Church was a fitting theater of this striking event. While the zenith sun of mid-day blazed and burned with genial warmth at the portals, the illuminations of the interior shed their soft light as at eventide from myriad gas jets and the many candles banqueting the flower-festooned altar—lilies, smilax, ferns, palms and evergreens, hung with poetic significance as if awaiting the coming of the radiant bride and groom.

And the bride!

Is there not something unspeakably beautiful, significant and touching in the nuptial tableau when the blushing and radiant young woman gives her heart, soul and body into the keeping of a man?

Blessed be the tie that binds
When Hyman leads them to his shrine.

It was just 12 o'clock—high noon—when the pealing organ burst forth with the strains of the "Wedding March" from Mendelssohn, by Miss Harriett Johnson, organist, announcing the approach of the nuptial party.

Advancing up the parallel aisles on the right the bridesmaids—

Miss Elizabeth Grundy, Lebanon, Ky.

Miss Marie Sanford, Newcastle, Ky.

Miss Roberta Cox, Maysville, Ky.

Miss Lucy Marshall Waller, younger sister of the bride, Maid of Honor, Maysville, Ky.

On the left the groomsmen—

Mr. Karl Burkhardt, Cincinnati.

Mr. Hugh Meek, Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. William Reese, Maysville.

Following the maid of honor came the happy bride, Miss Elizabeth Langhorne Waller, escorted on the arm of her father, Rev. Dr. Maurice Waller.

The groom, Mr. Shelby Mitchell Blatterman, followed his groomsman, leaning on the arm of his "best man," Mr. Alfred Peed.

Then the nuptial tableau—bridesmaids, groomsmen and the father, Rev. Maurice Waller, the officiating Minister, assisted by Rev. John Barbour, facing the audience, while the contracting parties faced the altar. In firm tones the responses were uttered and the words spoken which joined in holy wedlock the happy couple. The Presbyterian wedding ceremony, always impressive, seemed doubly so yesterday, and never in Maysville was there a more perfect wedding picture than seen at this "Puritan altar" of lights and flowers, with radiant maidens and many men, beautiful bride and handsome groom, comprising the dramatis persona.

Following the order of entrance, the wedding party left the Church, the audience, meanwhile, standing during the arrival, the ceremony and the exit.

The bride, a true Bluegrass girl of the "Gibson" type, "bred in Old Kentucky," is a prize worth the devotion of any man. She wore an empire gown of white satin, with trailing bridal veil and orange flower wreath from sunny Florida, the gift of a friend; the waist was trimmed in Duchesse lace, with rose point bertha, the gift of the groom's mother; the skirt was trimmed in Duchesse lace, worn by her paternal grandmother.

The groom, a typically handsome product of Mason county, is the only son of Mrs. Harriett Mitchell of Mayslick. He is a deservedly popular member of our younger set and will reside with his wife on one of the finest Blue-grass farms in Kentucky.

The great sheaf of Bride's roses, carried by the bride and the handsomely gowned brides maid and the Maid of Honor, all beautifully costumed and loaded with flowers, made a nuptial setting which will not easily fade from the eye of memory.

Miss Lucy Marshall Waller, the sister and Maid of Honor, looked very chic in pink silk mouseline empire gown, hat, with pink roses, carrying a great sheaf of white roses.

Miss Grundy and Miss Cox, in white empire gowns, carrying pink roses, wearing white hats trimmed in pink roses; Miss Sanford in pink, carrying white roses, wearing white hats trimmed in pink roses were lovely and typical examples of beautiful young Kentucky womanhood.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride and groom repaired to the former's home, and later they drove to the C. and O. Station, where they went aboard train No. 2 for a trip East. They will visit Washington, New York and other points of interest, and on their return will reside at the home of the groom near Mayslick.

The bride's going-away suit was of handsome blue cloth.

THE PUBLIC LEDGER would be pleased to add to its sincere congratulations a list of the wedding presents, but cannot, as the latter list would be too long. The bride received nearly 150 presents, all of them valuable and beautiful. Besides hundreds of dollars in cash, useful and ornamental presents of all kinds, her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Waller of Chicago, presented her with a complete solid silver set of unique design, which is the piece de resistance of the collection.

And the night shall be filled with music,
And the cares that infest the day,
Shall fold up their tents like the Arabs
As silently steal away.

FATAL ACCIDENT

Five-Year-Old Boy Breaks His Neck in a Fall—Instant Death

A fatal and somewhat unusual accident occurred Tuesday morning at Bridgeville, near Germantown, when the five-year-old son of Ira Berry fell in the yard at their home and sustained a broken neck, death resulting instantaneously.

The little fellow started from the house to the stable, a short distance away, where his father was, and going through the yard fell over some obstruction in the pathway, his neck being broken.

THIS TIME

It is the Girl From Maysville That Comes to the Front

The following excerpt is taken from Sunday's Nashville (Tenn.) American:

"One of the many interesting features of the coming Art Exhibit at the Parthenon is to be a display of architectural designs by a young lady who has recently entered that profession, practically a field hitherto unexplored by her sex. Miss Emma Williams, a native of Maysville, Ky., who graduated from the Architectural Department of the Chicago Art Institute, is following this line of work, having recently removed to Nashville from Chicago, where she was one of three women architects in that city. Miss Williams' ambition is to eventually fall into the more artistic features of her profession, which her thorough knowledge of drawing and her artistic nature will enable her to do successfully."

Miss Williams is a graduate of the Maysville High School, and the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams of West Front street.

THE NEW ST. PATRICK

Members of Congregation Inspected the New Church Yesterday

At the St. Patrick Church yesterday the Feast of St. Patrick, the patronal Saint of the Church, a fitting feature most pleasing to the assembled worshippers was an invitation extended to them by the Reverend Pastor, Father P. M. Jones, to inspect the interior of the new Church edifice to be dedicated to the service of God under the patronage of St. Patrick.

To the many who thronged the new building it was a revelation of beauty, surpassing their most sanguine expectations. The beauty of its proportions, the symmetric grandeur of its architecture, elicited the heartiest admiration.

Each day, by the magic touch of skilled workmen, new beauties are added, swelling the grand anthem of the whole, so that the beholder cannot but feel the meaning of the term, "frozen music," which has been aptly applied to architecture.

When completed, which will not be until the present place of worship is razed and on its site the final addition to the new Church made, St. Patrick's will rank among the few truly architectural beauties in the State.

REVISED TARIFF

Sweeping Changes in the New Measure—Big Increase in Customs

CURES

Added to the Long List due to This Famous Remedy.

Camden, N.J.—"It is with pleasure that I add my testimonial to your already long list—hoping that it may induce others to avail themselves of this valuable medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I suffered from terrible headaches, pain in my back and right side, was tired and nervous, and so weak I could hardly stand. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored me to health and made me feel like a new person, and it shall always have my praise." —Mrs. W. P. VALENTINE, 902 Lincoln Avenue, Camden, N.J.

Gardiner, Me.—"I was a great sufferer from a female disease. The doctor said I would have to go to the hospital for an operation, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound completely cured me in three months." —Mrs. S. A. WILLIAMS, R. F. D. No. 14, Box 39, Gardiner, Me.

Because your case is a difficult one, doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has cured many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, indigestion, dizziness, and nervous prostration. It costs but a trifle to try it, and the result is worth millions to many suffering women.

LUTHER BURBANK

The Wizard of the Vegetable Kingdom—Discoveries That Astound the World

Luther Burbank is the Thomas A. Edison of the vegetable world. During the 30 years of his investigations he has developed a genius which baffle the scientists and now a great corporation has been formed that will commercialize all his discoveries and he will make millions for himself and his new company.

Among the more wonderful vegetal and floral creations of Burbank, which this new corporation will control and sell, are these—

Spineless Cactus—A plant that grows on the desert without water, attaining a bulk of 600 pounds in three years, every ounce making excellent nutritious food for man and beast; designed to revolutionize the cattle industry of the United States.

The Plumcot—A union of the plum and the apricot, with the flavor of a Bartlett pear; absolutely a new species in pomology.

The Pineapple Quince—A new fruit with all the hardness of the quince and the delicious flavor of the pineapple.

The Tomato—A plant bearing potatoes at the roots and an edible vegetable hardly distinguished from the tomato on the vines.

A New Walnut—The most rapidly growing tree in the temperate zone, the wood worth $700 per 1,000 feet, the nut with shell as thin as paper and the meat white as milk.

A New Chestnut—The tree bearing nuts in from eight to eighteen months after the seed is planted, the nuts burrless.

Seedless Apples, Pitless Prunes and Pitless Cherries—With all the deliciousness of flavor without the seeds or stones.

Peach-Almond—A tree bearing nuts similar to almonds with the delicious flavor of the meat of the peach stone.

The Shasta Daisy—A development of the common field daisy; an exquisite flower rivaling the Japanese chrysanthemum with petals five inches long.

Flowers—A crimson poppy that blooms the year round, fully ten inches in diameter; calla lilies twelve inches in diameter and also less than two inches in diameter; a verbena with the fragrance of the trailing arbutus; a gladiolus taught to bloom around the stem instead of on one side.

Fruit Trees—So hardy that they will stand freezing in bud and blossom.

Danderine

Grows Hair and we can PROVE IT!

DANDERINE is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful. It once imparts a sparkling brilliancy and velvety softness to the hair, and a few weeks' use will cause new hair to sprout all over the scalp. Use it every day for a short time, after which two or three times a week will be sufficient to complete whatever growth you desire.

A lady from St. Paul writes in substance, as follows:

"When I began using Danderine my hair would not come to my shoulders and now it is away below my hips."

Another from Brooklyn, N. J.

"I have been using Danderine regularly. When I first started to use it I had very little hair, now I have the most beautiful and thick hair anyone would want to have."

NOW at all druggists in three sizes 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle

Danderine enjoys a greater sale than any other one preparation, regardless of kind or brand, and it has a much greater sale than all of the other hair preparations in the world combined.

FREE To show how quickly Danderine acts, we will send a large sample free by return mail to anyone who sends this free coupon to the KROWLTON DANDERINE CO., CHICAGO, ILL., with their name and address and 10c in silver or stamps to pay postage.

China is about to take a census of the uncounted millions within her borders.

George Beck, formerly of Lewis county, died Tuesday at his home at Portsmouth, aged 76.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.
